

As an XM subscriber, I support the use of traffic and weather reports being broadcasted. The reports are consistent and constant, and much more reliable than flipping through stations for a report or having to listen to junk commercials. I pay for these services and I have a right to be provided them.